CLASS SONG

Written by Kathy Forkey

Dedicated to the faculty and parents
To tune "In the Wind"

This is the day we have all waited for,
With which the beginning shall end;
From this day forth we go separate ways,
We leave our many old friends.
We'll climb Life's great mountain, and scan her great heights
Before we reach our goal.

And so, here and now,
We leave all our thanks,
Good Farewell, God's
Blessing to you.

We want you to know; we do realize
Just how much that you have done:
Our teachers and parents have all worked hard,
And in our cause they have won
Our love and our thanks for being so great,
And making our work seem like fun.
And so, here and now,
We leave our thanks.
Good Farewell, God's
Blessing to you.

We say our good-bys; we leave you with words
Of endearment that can ne'er express
Just what we feel you have given us.
When to aid us in our stress
To gain in our life a goal which is now
More complete than any can guess.

And so, here and now,
We leave all our thanks,
Good Farewell, God's
Blessing to you.

MOTTO and THEME: CLIMB EVERY MOUNTAIN

FRESHMAN YEAR

BY Sandra Bullock

In September of 1960, hoping to climb to the summit of each and every mountain, seventy-six eager freshmen entered Charlton High School for their long four-year journey.

Since the class was very large, the pupils were divided into three rooms, under the supervision of Mrs. Donna McArdle, Mr. Robert Burns and Mr. Donald Sullivan. Our class officers for the year were President-Merrill Putnam; Vice-President-Holly Rose; Secretary-Craig Butler; and Treasurer-Sandra Ewing.

Highest honors for this year were won by Helene Ditch, Sandra Ewing, Roy Gunter; honor roll honors, Karen Anderson, Suzanne Cormier, Robert Jensen, Anna Kupiec, Audrey Langlois, Patricia Miller, Virginia Pontbriand, Darrell Stone, Jeanne Thibaudeau, Judy Truscott, and Adrian Wheeler.

One of our first mountains to climb was our successful Freshmen Hop, which surely started our treasury toward the greatly anticipated Washington Trip.

All too soon, for the most of us, the first step of reaching our goals of life had ended, but we were all looking forward to our next big mountain--the Sophomore Year.

Sophomore Class History

By Virginia Pontbriand

The class of 1965 started its Sophomore year in the September of 1962 with sixty-seven members: Twenty-four in Room 3, with Mr. Sullivan as class advisor; twenty in Room 2, with Mr. Burns; and twenty-three in Room 15, with Mrs. McArdle. However, we regretfully lost Adrian Wheeler, Frank Sullivan, and Merrill Putnam.

After our annula class elections, we had the following officers: President - David Lawrence; Vice-President - Leonard Tiberii; Secretary - Bonnie Ziemba; and Treasurer-Susan Ide.

Being an active class, we did remarkably well in the Magazine Drive, with Mary Eastman the third highest C.H.S. saleswoman. On March 1, 1963, we climbed another mountain with our Sophomore Hop, which was a great financial and social success.

Justly proud were we of the following students who achieved honor marks: Sandy Ewing and Anna Kupiec with highest honors; Mary Eastman, Scott Ferguson, Kathleen Forkey, Roy Gunter, Helene Ditch, Virginia Pontbriand, Jeanne Thibaudeau, Judy Ann Truscott, Mary Lou Lamprey, Patricia Miller, and Louise Thompson with honor roll marks.

At the end of our Sophomore year, we were eagerly awaiting the opportunity to climb the mountains of our Junior year; namely, the small hill at the top of which we found our class rings and the large mountain of our long-awaited Junior Prom.

Junior Class History

by Patricia Miller

We began to climb the third hill in our four C. H. A. Mountain Range, namely our Junior Year, in September of 1963, with seventy-one members, advised by Mrs. Donna McArdle, Mr. Donald Sullivan, and Mr. Robert Burns. Two new members, Elizabeth Norman and Donald Hebert, were bright additions to our class. However, we regretfully lost Richard Ditamasso.

The Junior Class officers were as follows: President - Leonard Tiberii; Vice-President - Sandra Ewing; Secretary - Suzanne Allen; Treasurer - Susan Ide; and Class Representatives - Sandra Prunier and Elizabeth Norman. We were also very proud to have our own David Lawrence serving as Student Council President; and Bonnie Ziemba, as Student Council Secretary.

One of the most anticipated moments in our school years finally came on October 9, when, after much effort on the part of Mrs. Emma Hammond, we were given our Class Rings. Two days following this event, on October 11, our very successful Junior Hop was held in the Elementary Cafeteria. From this activity we gratefully added a profit of approximately $120.00 to our treasury. Another project of ours to secure more funds, for our much awaited Junior Prom, was selling candy at the home basketball games.

On May 8, 1964, under the direction of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Shiela Glynn, our Junior Prom was held. Perry Conte's orchestra added just the finishing touch to our very beautiful Japanese scene with a brilliant red pagoda highlighting our theme "Oriental Gardens." Many members of the Junior Class worked hard to make this Prom a most outstanding high peak of our four year mountain climb.

We were extremely proud of the following students who achieved Highest Honors and Honors for the Junior Year: Highest honors went to Sandra Ewing, Helene Ditch, Anna Kupiec, and Louise Thompson; while regular honors went to Marjorie Proctor, Sheila Beeber, Raymond Burlingame, Suzanne Cormier, Roy Gunter, Robert Jensen, Virginia Pontbriand, Jeanne Thibaudeau, Judy Truscott, Patricia Miller, and Charles Stone.

Thinking of that last and highest mountain which we had to climb, our Senior Year, with its many much anticipated activity hills--such as Senior Play--Senior Action--Washinton Trip--Yearbook--Class Day--Graduation, we finally came to the top of the third hill--our Junior Year.

Senior History

by Suzanne Allen

In September, 1964, seventy-two eager Seniors began the hard climb up the last mountain in a series of their four large and meaningul mountains. We were sorry to lose Elaine Dufault, Mary Eastman, Mitchel Dunn, Donald Hebert, Carmen Morin, Eugene Mosher, and Sandra Prunier. However, David Benway, Janet Brown, and Lola King were bright new additions to our class.

We were duly proud of Helene Ditch, Sandra Ewing, Anna Kupiec, Patricia Miller, Virginia Pontbriand, and Louise Thompson for earning Highest Honors; and we were especially proud of Suzanne Allen, Noni Berthiaume, Sheila Beeber, Janet Brown, Raymond Burlingame, Ruth Chickering, Suzanne Cormier, Kathleen Forkey, Roy Gunter, Susan Ide, Lola King, Mary Lou Lamprey, Elizabeth Norman, Bryant Phillips, Marjorie Proctor, Denis St. Gelais, Darrell Stone, Judy Truscott, Leonard Tiberii, and Bonnie Ziemba for making the Honor Roll.

September 11, 1964, was the date of our first fund-raising activity of the year, our Senior Hop, which aided in fattening our treasury as our climb continued.

Our Senior Auction, held on October 17, 1964, was another most profitable ascent. The hard work and time donated by the Seniors, their advisers, Mrs. Donna McArdle, and Mr. Robert Burns, and their C. H. S. principal, Mr. Ball, was justly rewarded by the wonderful profit of $1,100 for their treasury and the generous satisfaction felt by all these hard workers.

Our pattern set, we climber higher and higher and did more and more. Next came our successful Senior Play, Auntie Mame, ably directed by Miss Judith Blake and Mr. William Taylor. In this play held on November 13, Suzanne Allen, as "Auntie Mame," did an exceptionally fine job and was well supported by the following seniors: Karen Anderson, Noni Berthiaume, Sandra Bullock, Craig Butler, Karen Carlson, Ruth Chickering, Ethel Degenhardt, Helene Ditch, Sandra Ewing, Kathleen Forkey, Frank Gaylord, Denis St. Gelais, Roy Gunter, James Hill, Roland Lanoue, David Lawrence, Paul Loconto, Patricia Miller, Elizabeth Norman, Albert Pepka, Virginia Pontbriand, Jean Ramsey, Leonard Tiberii, Judy Truscott,

Courtland Wilber and Bonnie Ziemba. The seventh grade actors, Kevin Butler and Jeffrey Plumb, were great assets to this production. We extend sincere gratitude to Mrs. Shiela Glynn and Mrs. Lavalle Leboeuf, who as Art Supervisor and Senior homeroom teacher, helped us greatly.

Then, we climbed another little hill with a profit of about $700 from our Christmas Card Sales, a project which consumed a great deal of our time and effort, particularly on the part of our Class President, Leonard Tiberii, and our treasurer, Susan Ide. They worked indefatigably on this arduous project.

As our treasury swelled, so did our gratitude and pride. Largely responsible for this feeling of pride, of course, were our financial, academic and social successes, especially the election of David Lawrence as our Student Government Day Representative and Sandra Ewing as our D.A.R. representative. Each conquest of our class not only strengthened our determination to succeed, but facilitated our climb up every mountain.

The Senior Supper, held in February, again exemplified the industry and cooperative attitude of all Seniors and was, of course, a very successful activity.

Treasury full, hopes high, hearts swelling with pride, we finally made our Washington trip--one of our highest mountains--a reality. It was a trip that we all enjoyed and appreciated; it will, no doubt, be a lasting memory for all those who went. Hard work now seems a small price to pay for the valuable experiences and memories which this, our Senior Year, has brought to us.

Our every mountain successfully climbed, our final year of high school at its end, the Seniors of 1965 pause to remember and to thank all who have so unselfishly given of themselves to help and understand us, both this year and every year. Thank you, Mr. William Ball, our school principal; Mrs. Donna McArdle and Mr. Robert Burns, our class advisers; Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Mabel Fiske, faculty advisors of our Junior Prom and Yearbook; Mr. Robert Ewing, superintendent of schools, our school committee, all the townspeople; and above all our beloved parents.

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
